EXTENDED DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION – 13 MARCH 2015

Due to popular interest, the deadline for the submission of abstracts and symposia/roundtable proposals has been extended until 13 March 2015.

Of interest to researchers, advocates, policy makers, programme managers, community workers and practitioners, the conference will provide opportunities for discussion of cutting edge issues including:

- (Re)-writing the history of AIDS: whose facts, whose visions, whose stories?
- An ‘epidemic of signification – cultural and media representations in the era of PrEP and ‘universal’ access
- Sexual orientation and gender identity – a new or enduring battleground?
- The politics of 'practice': conflicting perspectives on intervention and programme development
- Power, politics and resistance: the demise of agency in the face of constraint
- Positive nostalgia(s) and the international HIV response
- Renewing social sciences and humanities research

Keynote speakers:

Robert Lorway, Centre for Global Public Health, University of Manitoba, Canada
Activism, Science, and ‘Community’ across Three Continents

Tamara Shefer, Gender Studies, University of the Western Cape, South Africa
HIV in the (un) making of gender and heterosex: A critical perspective on two decades of research and practice with young people

Stella Nyanzi, Makerere Institute of Social Research, Makerere University, Uganda.
Transcending heteronormative HIV prevention, care and treatment: refocusing queer genders and sexualities in Africa

For information on how to submit an abstract or proposal, visit www.asshhconference.org

Abstract submissions close on Friday, 13 March 2015

Please join us

Peter Aggleton (UNSW Australia), Pierre Brouard (University of Pretoria, South Africa), Mary Crewe (University of Pretoria, South Africa), Gary Dowsett (La Trobe University, Australia) Conference Co-chairs

www.asshhconference.org